DUNN WAITING FOR ANNUAL

Chicago, Oct. 21.—James C. Dunn, president of the Cleveland America: Lyague baseball cinb, said today that he was going to do just what the rest of the American League club owners were going to do in regard to reorganization or baseball.

That's my attitude," he summarized.
"Tam going to attend the annual meeting of the American League when it is legally and constitutionally called, and am going to consider ways and means to maintain the honesty and integrity of baseball in collaboration with men against whose clubs there has not been a breath of suspicion."

BULKELEY AND VOCATIONAL

CLASH THIS SATURDAY New London, Oct. 21.—Saturday the much looked to game between the two local rival high schools, Bulkeley and the Vocational school, will take place to decide the supremacy of the city, and the game promises to be a humdinger. Both teams are fairly evenly matched. The officials agreed upon by the Bulkeley and Vocational managers are Bob Keefe, referee; Steve Brutaman, known to be well informed on all sports rules, and one of the fairest umpires that ever biew a whistle, will be the umpire.

Special police will be present to handle the crowds, and the field will be roped off. Cheering sections from the schools wi urge their warriors to a greater effort.

ROCK'S ALL STARS ARE ALL READY FOR SUNDAY'S GAME

Friend Hal:
Your letter confirming our talk over the phone received and wish to state that I will be more than pleased to bring my club down again Sunday. All that the boys have been talking about has been that game, and they are all set, they say,
to go down Sunday and give you a trimming in the regulation time, nine innings, although they know, I am sure, it will be a real battle.

I was very much surprised at the way Friend Hal:

I was very much surprised at the way your club worked, and the snap and ginger they put into the game, which is due, I am sure, in a large measure to your own efforts as they were chock full of the old fighting spirit.

I am trying te land Jimmy Cooney for Sunday but don't know how I will make Heavy selling developed in the wheat market after midday when news was circulated that British railway employers and francock workers had decided to circulated that British rallway employes and transport workers had decided to join the miners strike unless the government opened negotiations with the miners by Saturday. Bear pressure on the market was increased further by reports that Canadian millers were offering flour for three to six months delivery at rates equal to 20 cents a bushel below low present prices of wheat. Profit taking led to something of a rally near the close, but otherwise throughout the day the bulks were at a disadvantage except for a brief time early while a leading elevator interest turned to the buying side, and to some extent discredited assertions that buying power for all commodities was being reduced to a minimum. Corn and oats were depressed in ayan-pathy with wheat, and solid at new low levels for the season.

Provisions lacked support owing to the decline of grain and to notable breaks

THRIFT CAMPAIGN TO BEACH

EVERY FAMILY IN COUNTRY Washington, Oct 21 -- A three-yearthrift campaign to reach every family in the country that has no bank account was proposed to the American Bankers' Association today by its committee on public and private thrift. As a part of the campaign, government officials would Association today by its committee range be called upon to practice utmost econ-team the federal government.

"The recent orgy of extravagance" declared the committee's report, "has in-dicated very clearly the need for more popular realization of the need for sav-ing when and as the opportunity pre-sents itself. The time is at band when thrift and saving will be regarded as not only possibilities, but actual neces-sities."

Small savers are to be the chief source in financing the normal growth of com-merce and industry, the report said, adding that present tax policies offer a serious check to increased investment by holders of large wealth.

"Not only must the lesson be taught to the individual citizen and especially to the wage carrer who has not yet found a place to begin," said the re-port, "but our government officials must also be impressed with a similar idea because of their example to the citizens and also because of its demand
